DETAILED ACTION

1. This a action is in response to papers filed on January 15, 2002.
2. Claims 1-50 are pending.
3. Claims 1-50 are rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 19-20 and 46-47 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The above claims have the limitations of "determining" an affinity value threshold and identifying if an affinity value is less than the threshold. The disclosure does not teach how to determine the threshold in any manner. Furthermore, the disclosure does not identify or teach what a affinity value is a how one comes up with an affinity value.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Patent Publication 2004/0068477 Gilmour et al; Method and System to Publish the Results of a Search of Descriptive Profiles based on Respective Publication Policies Specified by Owners of the Descriptive Profiles and a Profile Service Provider.

8. As to claims 1, 23, 33 and 50 Gilmour teaches identifying a publication policy (Pg. 5 para 47) and sending a message for whether or not a provider can publish parts of a profile(Pg. 5 para 52).

9. As to claims 2, 17, 30, 32 and 34 Gilmour teaches determining if a user responded to a message(Pg. 5 para 52).
